

Open the Matlab environment first, then open the application folder.

Run the main_scoliosis script

After executing, the user box will appear and select the file.

